

Highland House + One Love Learning Foundation Seva and Sangha Yoga Retreat Program

Exquisite estate with an enchanted history

Built in 1942, Highland House became the private home of Oscar and Dorothy Hammerstein in the 1950s – in fact, some say The Sound of Music was written here. Once the setting for spirited Hollywood dinner parties, restoration in 2000 brought Highland House back to its former grandeur.

Elevate your senses

When Brenda Isaac bought the estate, she was an experienced yogi with an affinity for soothing spaces. Her renovations included adding the Yoga Pavilion which is situated within calming sight of the pool. There have since been a number of transformative yoga events at Highland House.

Escape in a haven of beauty and comfort

Highland House features six bedrooms on 17 lush hillside acres overlooking Montego Bay and the Caribbean Sea. Five-star service from private chefs, butlers, and housekeepers have helped the estate win a awards, and the scenery and spirit of Highland House will help you make once-in-a-lifetime memories.

Extraordinary opportunity to make a difference

Highland House funds a unique charity, the One Love Learning Foundation (501-3c). OLLF supports schools in Cape Town, Jamaica, and Atlanta with programs that range from music to organic farming. At the Cavalleria Primary School in Cape Town, South Africa, malnutrition is the most urgent problem facing the student body. Since One Love began helping to provide fresh produce to the pupils there, the pass rate for Ministry of Education tests has increased from 2.9% in 2008 to 44.7% in 2011.

While we are proud of our contributions at Cavalleria, we aren't close to being done. Today, OLLF makes it possible for each student to have fresh fruit or vegetables every other day. We think that these children deserve healthy, nutritious food every day. We also have robust programs at schools in Jamaica and Atlanta that need everything from teachers to technology.
